

IMPELLO GLOBAL

ELEVATE YOUR TRADE FINANCE CAPABILITIES

Impello Global is a U.S. based trade credit insurance brokerage and a trade finance advisor. We specialize in brokering trade credit and political risk insurance globally and provide advisory services to companies, private equity firms, and lenders looking to expand their global trade and finance capabilities.

Our experienced team partners with owners, as well as sales and finance leaders, to develop strategies that address international business challenges, risks, and opportunities. We leverage our global network to source, structure, and implement the appropriate insurance coverage and required financing to propel our client's business.
